

LSAW

Land Surveyors' Association of Washington

SPRING SEMINAR - MAY 18TH - VANCOUVER, WA

When: Friday, May 18th (7:30 AM to 4:30 PM) 7 PDHs

Where: Heathman Lodge - 7801 NE Greenwood Drive, Vancouver, WA

Topic 1: The Life Cycle of a Property Encroachment

Jeff Lindberg, Attorney at Law will be talking about how to steer our clients and adjacent property owners to a peaceful boundary resolution. But if that doesn't work what should surveyors expect to happen as it escalates? If there is time he will also cover what liabilities surveyors have.

Topic 2: Platted Easements in Washington

Brian Portwood, PLS, BPA will discuss a chronological review of 20 Washington cases involving platted easements spanning the 20th Century, this presentation was originally developed to provide guidance for attorneys on how to effectively collaborate with land surveyors on land development projects involving the creation of easements through platting, and to illustrate the importance of land surveyor knowledge in resolving the locational aspects of easement issues.

Topic 3: Washington case law in the 21st Century

Brian Portwood, PLS, BPA will review recent Washington cases and/or federal cases which took place in Washington on a variety of topics that are relevant and generally interesting to land surveyors, lying within the realm of boundary & title law, such as riparian issues, highlighting key aspects of the judicial process and the value of land surveyor input to the resolution of any title issues which have a locational component.
